MISSION & VISION

MarLab works with the broader university community and businesses to develop knowledge and practices to assist in the rapidly evolving field of marketing. By having marketing experts at the university, MarLab serves as a nexus to link various disciplines with practitioners, students and other academics to understand and drive new concepts and approaches to marketing.

MarLab conducts cutting-edge marketing research by bringing together marketing academics and practitioners to discuss innovations in the marketing field and forecast their impact in the future marketplace. Events such as conferences, workshops and seminars organized by MarLab aim to bringing leading minds together and exploring new ideas and directions. MarLab connects the University of Macedonia faculty, researchers and professionals around the world to study the impact of societal, economic and technological changes on the role of marketing and its practices.

The mission of MarLab is to leverage the knowledge and expertise of the University of Macedonia and affiliated faculty to help marketing executives solve marketing issues their companies face. Specifically, our purpose is to align important marketing problems with academic research and analysis techniques to develop strategies that improve business performance and facilitate business-academic collaboration to create and disseminate marketing knowledge.

CORE VALUES: 4Cs

Our core values at MarLab are:

▪ Commitment

Our commitment to outstanding marketing science is strong and unwavering, requiring extraordinary passion and a commitment to creativity and innovation.

▪ Collaboration

Collaboration is the cornerstone of our laboratory. It enhances the ability of the individual to contribute and aligns all of us in the pursuit of our research mission.

▪ Communication

Commitment to communication is fundamental to our success. It fosters trust, clarity, inclusion, and better decision-making.

▪ Community

We recognize the significance of the individual to our mission and hold ourselves accountable to provide a supportive environment for our colleagues, partners, associates and students so that they can perform to their fullest.
