

Curriculum vitae

Michalis Psilos is a journalist. He was born in 1960 in Athens and studied Geology at the University of Patras.

He began his career in journalism in 1982 at Rizospastis newspaper and then worked in newspapers Proti, Nea, Vradyni, Isotimia, Pontiki, Prin and Efimerida ton Syntakton. He has also worked in radio "Diavlos 10" and "Radio 5" as well as in several political magazines. From 1991 to 2009 he worked for Antenna TV and between 2001 -2009 was head of Antenna's International News Department.

He has been working in the Athens News Agency Macedonian Press Agency (ANA-MPA) since 1988.

He has conducted dozens of journalistic missions around the world and has taken hundreds of interviews.

He has been President & CEO of Athens News Agency Macedonian Press Agency (ANA-MPA) since 2015.